

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

A Desperately Serious Case Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Brought to the very verge of starvation by the rejection of all nourishment, her vitality almost destroyed, the recovery of Mrs. J. A. Wyatt, of No. 1189 Seventh street, Des Moines, Iowa, seemed hopeless. Her physicians utterly failed to reach the seat of the difficulty and death must have resulted if she had not pursued an independent course suggested by her sister's experience.

Mrs. Wyatt says: "I had pain in the region of the heart, palpitation and shortness of breath so that I could not walk very fast. My head ached very badly and I was seized with vomiting spells whenever I took any food. A doctor was called who pronounced the trouble gastritis, but he gave me no relief. Then I tried a second doctor without benefit. By this time I had become very weak. I could not keep the most delicate broth on my stomach, and at the end of a month I was scarcely more than skin and bone and was really starving to death."

"Then I recalled how much benefit my sister had got from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to take them in place of the doctor's medicine. It proved a wise decision for they helped me as nothing else had done. Soon I could take weak tea and crackers and steadily more nourishment. In two weeks I was able to leave my bed. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were the only thing that checked the vomiting and as soon as that was stopped my other difficulties left me. I have a vigorous appetite now and am able to attend to all the duties of my home. I praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People to all my friends because I am thoroughly convinced of their merit."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists and by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

An Addendum.

David Christie Murray has an anecdote to tell of what he says is "the champion printer's error of his experience." At the close of a certain story from his pen, published some years ago, Mr. Murray wrote:

"Are there no troubles now?" the lover asks.

"Not one, dear Frank, not one."

And then, in brackets, thus [], he put the words, "White line." This was a technical instruction to the printer, and meant that one line of space should be left clear. The genius who had the copy in hand put the lover's speech in type correctly, and then, setting it out as if it were a line of verse, he added: "Not one, dear Frank, not one white line!"—London Tit-Bits.

DAZED WITH PAIN.

The Sufferings of a Citizen of Olympia, Wash.

L. S. Gorham, of 516 East 4th street, Olympia, Wash., says: "Six years ago I got wet and took cold, and was soon flat in bed, suffering from a severe attack of kidney trouble. Every movement caused an agonizing pain, and the persistence of it exhausted me, so that for a time I was dazed and stupid. On the advice of a friend I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and soon noticed a change for the better. The kidney secretions had been disordered and irregular, and contained a heavy sediment, but in a week's time the urine was clear and natural again and the passages regular. Gradually the aching and soreness left my back and then the lameness. I used six boxes to make sure of a cure, and the trouble has never returned."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Almost Time.

The convention of physicians was called secretly and hurriedly. Dr. Kill-em rose to speak.

"Gentlemen of the profession," he said, "something must be done. Our automobile tires are wearing out, our daughters' music lessons are unpaid for and nearly all our good patrons have already been operated upon for appendicitis. What shall we do?"

"Let's discover a new microbe," said Dr. Quack.

The motion was carried unanimously and a wave of sickness wafted doctors to the doctors' coffers.—Indianapolis Star.

BRIEF COMPILATION OF LATE STATE NEWS.

An Interesting Summary of the More Important Doings of Our Neighbors—Weddings and Deaths—Crimes, Casualties and General Buckeye News Notes.

Buckeye News In Brief.

Hubert Wright, the 11-year-old son of C. J. Wright of Granville, was drowned.

Mrs. Frank Wolf of Fremont, was badly burned about the face, head and hands by the explosion of escaped accumulated gas in her stove.

Tony Dismar, a fruit dealer of Marysville, shot Joe Cullen during a quarrel over a dog, dangerously wounding him. Dismar escaped.

H. J. Serry of Toledo, fireman on the Wabash railway, fell from a coal tank at Montpelier, fracturing his skull. His recovery is doubtful.

Joe Poggio, 40, and Harry Royer, 25, were buried under twenty feet of sand at Ravenna. Poggio is badly hurt and may die. Royer was dug out uninjured.

Jesse Mantjar, a farmer, aged 70, living near Galion, committed suicide by shooting himself. He was afflicted with cancer and took this means of ending his misery.

Earl Snyder and Jay Fry, glassworkers from Fostoria, were struck by a limited on the Toledo line while boarding a Fostoria car at Findlay, and Fry was instantly killed.

Oscar Bell, said to have been formerly postmaster at Fremont, committed suicide by poisoning in a lodging house at Boston. Bell was 66 years old. The cause of suicide is not known.

A half dozen prisoners in the Sandusky county jail at Fremont engaged in a fight and riot. John Foley had his arm broken, Clem McDonald, Scott Newman and Herman Michaels were also injured.

A natural gas explosion, followed by fire, in the McDevitt apartment block at Steubenville, wrecked walls and much of the interior. The occupants escaped in their night clothes. Damage $5,000, partly insured.

A rear-end collision between two Hoekling Valley freight trains occurred at Columbus in a dense fog. W. Randles, a fireman, was perhaps fatally injured. Sixteen cars were derailed and several of them totally wrecked.

An oil fire occurred at No. 3 on the Warden lease near Findlay, owned by the Taylor Oil Company, which destroyed the rig and belt house, together with the belt-line. The cause of the fire is unknown. The damage will amount to $500.

Andrew Tuttle, well known citizen of DeKalbe, ex-soldier and ex-scholar of DeKalbe county, died at the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago, where he was taken several weeks ago on account of failing health. Mr. Tuttle was 69 years old.

Frank Howard, Charles Sandys, William Grant and William Jackson were terribly scalded at the Gardner paper mill at Middletown. Howard may die. They were caught by escaping steam and water while crawling under a paper machine to repair it.

Two Italians were shot down in the rear of Mike Ramone's saloon at Kent. Five shots were fired at the men in the darkness, all the bullets entering their bodies. Surgeons are unable to locate them and the men may die. There is no clue to the assassin.

A scaffold on the new Seneca Wire and Manufacturing Company's plant at Fostoria broke and Will Overholt and Luther Tyler, fell a distance of forty feet. Both of Osterholt's legs were broken below the knee, one being broken twice. Tyler fell on his head and bled from his nose and both ears, but was soon able to walk without assistance.

Ashtand county is now excited over the prospects for oil and gas on account of a big gusher with an estimated product of 3,000,000 cubic feet per day, which came in on the farm of Jesse Stull, four miles south of Loudonville. As a result of this strike of gas, representatives of different oil and gas companies are engaged in a merry contest for leases throughout Ashtand county.

A thoroughbred bull en route to Webster, W. Va., while being transferred from one car to another at Newark, broke away and made a dash for a young woman attired in flaming red. The girl escaped, but the bull, after frightening many passengers, dashed through the railway yards. He avoided numerous engines and tried to knock a freight car off the track, then ran down the interurban track and was killed by a trolley car.

A strange coincidence in connection with the trial at Dayton, of Dr. Oliver C. Haugh for first degree murder is the fact that a divorce suit against him, instituted many months before the crime, of which he is alleged to be guilty, occurred, is set for hearing March 14, which, in all probability will be before the culmination of the murder trial. The divorce suit was previously suppressed for religious reasons on the part of the plaintiff. During the present trial, Mrs. Haugh is on her husband's side and is doing everything she can for him.

Bob Butts and George Bridgewater, two young men living in New Pittsburgh, Hoekling county, pulled out their guns at Logan and made George Donovan, colored, do a clog dance. Butts and Bridgewater, after emptying their revolvers, began to jeer the colored man, when he turned and fired five shots at his annoyers. Butts was shot in the left lung. Bridgewater was shot through the bowels and stomach. Both men were taken to the hospital in Columbus, where they died. Donovan was bound over under $2,000 bond, which he could not furnish, and was lodged in the county jail at Logan.

Owing to pressure of business the glass factories at Fostoria expect to run through-out the summer instead of shutting down for six weeks or more as is customary. Fans will be installed and everything possible done to make it comfortable for the workmen.

Robert Hosea, a member of the Ohio legislature in 1857-58 and for many years actively engaged in river trade between Cincinnati and New Orleans, and in general merchandise in Cincinnati for many years, died at his home in Cincinnati, aged 95 years. He was a native of Boston, but came to Cincinnati with his parents in 1829.

WORST FORM OF ECZEMA.

Black Splotches All Over Face—Affected Parts Now Clear as Ever—Cured by the Cuticura Remedies.

"About four years ago I was afflicted with black splotches all over my face and a few covering my body, which produced a severe itching irritation, and which caused me a great deal of annoyance and suffering, to such an extent that I was forced to call in two of the leading physicians of my town. After a thorough examination of the dreaded complaint they announced it to be skin eczema in its worst form. They treated me for the same for the length of one year, but the treatment did me no good. Finally my husband purchased a set of the Cuticura Remedies, and after using the contents of the first bottle of Cuticura Resolvent in connection with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, the breaking out entirely stopped. I continued the use of the Cuticura Remedies for six months, and after that every splotch was entirely gone and the affected parts were left as clear as ever. The Cuticura Remedies not only cured me of that dreadful disease, eczema, but other complicated troubles as well. Lizzie E. Sledge, 540 Jones Ave., Selma, Ala., Oct. 28, 1905."

In Disguise.

The Western Senator shook his head. "No," he said, "I can't support your bill for government control of insurance." "Why not?" "Well, in the first place, you've got the title twisted. Call it a bill for insurance control of the government and I'll talk it over."

A Complicated Transaction.

The "grand settling of accounts" in which Mrs. Compton and her mother indulge at the close of a day spent in the city, shopping, is an entertainment which Mr. Compton never misses if he can help it.

"Now, mother," said Mrs. Compton, when one of these occasions was drawing to a close, "can you give me the 75 cents for that little pincushion?" Then we shall be all straight once more."

"No," said the old lady, after an inspection of her cash assets, "I can't. I have only 60 cents in change."

Mrs. Compton looked worried, and as sometimes happened, her husband endeavored to lend a helping hand. "Your mother has a two-dollar bill there," he said, indicating one of the old lady's assorted piles. "Why doesn't she give you that, and you give her that dollar and a quarter over there?"

"William," and his wife turned an imploring and reproachful face toward him, "don't mix us up! That two dollars is what I paid mother ten minutes ago for my share of Cousin Lucy's down puff. And this dollar and a quarter is her share of Cousin Edward's ash-tray! If we turned and twisted things back and forth in the ways you suggest we should never know where we were! As it is, mother has the 50 cents I gave toward Katherine's doll's tea-set all mixed in with the money Lucy gave her, and we don't know how it happened, with all our exact methods!"—Youth's Companion.

A NECESSARY EVIL.

Experience of a Minister Who Tried to Think that of Coffee.

"A descendant of the Danes, a nation of coffee drinkers, I used coffee freely till I was 20 years old," writes a clergyman from Iowa. "At that time I was a student at a Biblical Institute, and suddenly became aware of the fact that my nerves had become demoralized, my brain dull and sluggish and that insomnia was fastening its hold upon me."

"I was leath to believe that these things came from the coffee I was drinking, but at last was forced to that conclusion, and quit it."

"I was so accustomed to a hot table beverage and felt the need of it so much, that after abstaining from coffee for a time and recovering my health, I went back to it. I did this several times, but always with disastrous results. I had about made up my mind that coffee was a necessary evil."

"About this time a friend told me that I would find Postum Food Coffee very fine and in many respects away ahead of coffee. So I bought some and, making it very carefully according to the directions, we were delighted to find that he had not exaggerated in the least. From that day to this we have liked it better than the old kind of coffee or anything else in the way of a table drink."

"Its use gave me, in a very short time, an increase in strength, clearness of brain and steadiness of nerves; and sleep, restful and restoring, came back to me."

"I am thankful that we heard of Postum, and shall be glad to testify at any time to the good it has done me." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
